

The Jackals of Justice

Woe, to the people of Iron County, for letting the Jackals of Justice (the judges, the DA, the police) lust over and exalt their Harlot (Connie) at the expense of exploiting an innocent man (Don Miller) and his family. Not only is the zealous, multi-faceted justice system seriously flawed, but unfortunately we elect and employ officials that in this case have become egotistic, self-appointed demigods that have sold their souls for their smug, self-righteousness, untouchable, ladder-climbing careers for the power they (jackals) wield, at the expense of taxpayers, who seem to be indifferent to the excessive exploits.

If every citizen could trade places for one year with Don Miller and experience the mental crucifixion, the everyday debase of his character, the waste of a valuable, decent, highly intelligent, ambitious life, you would be screaming much louder than you are. If you don't scream now, it may be much too late to scream later! The official powers know Don Miller is innocent; however, Don is now a member of "The Lost Society (prison), a cherished business statistic. Don (like all inmates) is worth approximately $35,000.00 to $44,000.00 (figures vary) to the justice (business) system. No, it doesn't cost that much to warehouse Don each year. After all, how much does the pro-rated cost of a four-year-old $100.00 mattress and 3 meals with the ambrosial appeal of simulated garbage each day really cost? I assure you, Don and people of the Lost Society (prison) are not living a country club style of life. In fact, if you could trade places, you would probably describe Don's life as low-grade existence (similar to an unwanted dog in a pen), with all common sense abolished. The Wisconsin penal system is full of people in categories of innocent and excessive punishment that does not fit the crime. The cultic Jackals know exactly what they are doing. They're ordained to their lust, deceit, legal theft, theatrics, media coercion, self-justification, and hypocritical judgement, etc. After all, "It's Legal!"! It should be okay!

Perhaps, many of our elected politicians don't even know what a monster our justice system has become; however, our legislature continues to dump $$ billions of dollars of your money into and pass additional unneeded laws for the Jackals program every year, and worship the coined slogan "Tough on Crime", while the reverse side of the coin is "Tough on Taxpayers" and "In Your Face, More Control for the Government, at Your Expense, While Many of the Jackals become Wealthy". Perhaps we are getting too many career justice people and not enough citizen input into our justice. It needs change.

From all the questions raised about and in regard to Don Miller's innocence, do you see the dastardly jackals coming forth to defend themselves? Why, because the jackals deem themselves the untouchable. How do these jackals sleep at night, knowing what they have done to an innocent man? It's legal, must be okay! What a tragedy that an innocent man, an asset to our society, a treasure to us all, is sacrificed so the jackals can climb their career ladders, using an innocent life for their rungs and their harlot can falsely cry foul.

We must ask ourselves, have we become desensitized and cowardly and is this the justice we want, or just well-oiled business as usual for the Jackals of Justice with our approval?

When we fall prey to exploits of cultic jackals and the over-zealous justice system, justice becomes just us! In this case, just Don!
